October 15th 2009

Dear Reverend Upton and the congregations of St Peter's and St Margaret's,

I am writing to thank you for the kind donation of food, and £30 in cash. PAFRAS and the destitute asylum seekers we work with are grateful for your help.

The PAFRAS drop in has been running since 2005, with numbers of visitors steadily increasing to the current levels of around 150 per week. The high demand for this service proves the despair faced by so many in this situation and whilst what we provide is a lifeline to some, it still isn't enough to sustain people long term.

Government policy causes additional harm to already vulnerable people by forcing them into abject poverty, homelessness and malnutrition. As such, we rely on the compassion and humanity shown by our donors in order to continue providing 70-80 food parcels per week, plus emergency hardship payments, warm clothing, a hot meal and a place to come and access support. On behalf of our clients, thank you for your generosity.

Kind regards,
